Employment Standards Act -Part 13
Appeal of a Determination issued by the Director of Employment Standards on October I, 1998
Christina Bland, Sam Habib and Ronald L. Sloan operating as Glenrosa Pizza -and- Josh J. Brett
Tribunal File No. 1998/671^{CDET}

Ronald L. Sloan made an appeal on October 26, 1998 against two Determinations which were issued by a delegate of the Director of Employment Standards on October I, 1998. The Determinations were issued following the investigation of a complaint made by Josh J. Brett and by Leslie Ainslie. The style of cause for each Determination was:

Director of Employment Standards
-vs.-
Christina Bland, Sam Habib and Ronald L. Sloan operating as Glenrosa Pizza

The principle ground of Mr. Sloan's appeal was that he was mistakenly included in the style of cause as he was not a partner in the business when the wages became due and payable. In response to the appeal, the Director's delegate wrote on November 16, 1998 to inform the Tribunal that Mr. Sloan was included in the style of cause in error and to request that his name be removed from both of the Determinations.

Christina Bland and Sam Habib did not respond to the appeal within the time set by the Tribunal for doing so.

ORDER

I order, under Section 115 of the Act, that the Determinations dated October 1, 1998 be varied by deleting Ronald L. Sloan from the style of cause.
